

EMPTY DRUM COLLECTION PROGRAM
EMPTY DRUM CERTIFICATION FORM

Company: _____

Are containers empty? The Resource Conservation and Recovery Act requires containers to be Drip Dry Emptied through pouring, pumping or aspiration practices. With dense products (tars, ect.) there must be less than one-inch residue. Refer to 40 CFR 261.7

Are containers sealed? The department of transportation require all containers to be sealed (All original plugs, covers and rings must be secure) Refer to CFR 172.204 (empty drum certificate)

- No Pourable Liquids
- Consolidated Container Company (CCC) will not be responsible for freight charges arranged by the emptier and will not accept collect shipments!
- Empty Drum Certificate Completed?
- The empty drum certification form must be completed for every container shipment. Sign and fax back this certificate to CCC.
- MSDS must be made available upon request.
- Markings and labels must be in place as if the drum were full of its original contents.

This is to certify that the above named shipper has all containers properly classified, described, packaged, marked and labeled and are in proper condition for transportation according to the applicable regulations of the Department of Transportation. (49 CFR 172.207) It is further certified that all containers are empty, that all plugs, lids and rings are securely in place. (49 CFR 173.29) It is further certified that all containers are properly classified, described and offered for shipment according to the applicable regulations of the Environmental Protection Agency (40 CFR Parts 260-263) and that they are Empty as defined in 40 CFR 261.7 and have not contained "acutely hazardous waste" as listed in 40 CFR 261.33(e) and that all "RQ" markings apply only to the original filled containers and not to these empty containers. It is also certified that no other material has been stored in the containers other than the product, which was originally contained in the container. Drums not complying with EPA empty regulations or D.O.T. closure regulations will be returned at the shipper's expense.

As the Shipper, I have read and fully understand the rules outlined in this Empty Drum Certificate.
